ABOUT PCK

Philabundance Community Kitchen (PCK), an adult vocational training program for low-income adults, seeks prospective students for its next class, March 3, 2025.

This 16-week program provides nearly 560 hours of culinary arts training and also offers exposure to guest chefs, catering opportunities, off-site internships and job placement services. In addition, retention services are offered for two full years to ensure that students maximize their training and maintain healthy work ethics. The program is FREE thanks to our generous donors.
